

Application Rate - Tomatoes

Apply 2 quarts per acre per application. Make first application just before flowering, second at fruit set, then every 7-14 days to harvest or until the desired rate is achieved. Since the plant continues to flower and produce fruit throughout the season, multiple applications are most effective.